

R-81-10 A resolution on personal involvement (Volunteerism)

Be it resolved, that this 1981 Diocesan Convention of the Diocese of Southern Ohio strongly encourage each communicant of the diocese to pledge at least one hour per week of volunteer time in direct service to those in need; and to make known to state and national legislators, with voice and vote, the great need for continued and responsible financial support of human services programs; and

Be it further resolved, that all interested persons be urged to attend the diocesan-wide Conference on Prophetic Ministry to be held on February 20, 1982, at the Procter Conference Center; and

Be it further resolved, that the Community Issues Office of the Diocese take primary responsibility for seeing that this resolution be implemented in the parish, in the neighborhood, and at the Statehouse.
